Re: United States v. Paul Calder LeRoux, 12 Cr. 489 (RA)
(SDNY); United States v. Paul Calder LeRoux, 14 Cr. 75
(RA) (D. Minn)

Dear Judge Abrams:

In mid-July, I was retained by the defendant, Mr. LeRoux, in the above-referenced matters. Shortly thereafter, I moved to adjourn the dates by which objections to the Pre-Sentence Report ("PSR") were due and the sentencing. The Court granted that request and objections to the PSR were due on August 12, 2019 and the sentencing was adjourned to October 25, 2019.

Objections to the PSR have been filed but the parties are still discussing various matters pertaining to the sentencing and need more time to do so. With the consent of the government, I request that the sentencing be adjourned to the second week of December, any day but Thursday, December 12, which is to say, the parties are available December 9, 10, 11 or 13.

Respectfully submitted,

James M. Branden
